Arvada Fire Chief Resigns

Arvada Fire Protection District Fire Chief Paul Dextras has resigned his position effective February 13, 2007. Dextras began his position as Arvada's Chief in September 2000.

Chief Dextras began his career in Wichita, Kansas where he worked his way up through the firefighting ranks. After retiring from Wichita, Dextras served as Assistant Chief in Independence, Kansas and Chief in Logan, Utah before coming to Arvada.

The Arvada Fire Protection District Board of Directors has not yet announced a plan to replace Dextras. Deputy Fire Chief Jon Greer will serve as acting Chief until a replacement is in place.
